

Directions:

1. Look at each number sentence.
2. Find the matching word problem.
3. Color in the matching code.
4. Solve the number sentence.
5. Post a video of your Ozobot following the path on Seesaw

There were 485 water bottles on a truck. Some of the water bottles fell off the truck. Now there are 266 water bottles. How many water bottles fell off the truck?

Mrs. Parks bought 242 pencils for her classroom. The students used 178 pencils so far this year. How many pencils does Mrs. Parks have left?

Sam had 324 markers and 178 colored pencils. How many more markers does Sam have than colored pencils?

Lori had some crayons. Paula had 209 crayons. When the girls combined their crayons, they had 492. How many crayons did Lori have?

Mario had 417 baseball cards. He gave some to Franco. Now he has 279. How many baseball cards did Mario give Franco?

Answer Key

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| There were 485 water bottles on a truck. Some of the water bottles fell off the truck. Now there are 266 water bottles. How many water bottles fell off the truck?  <math>485 - ? = 266</math> | Mrs. Parks bought 242 pencils for her classroom. The students used 178 pencils so far this year. How many pencils does Mrs. Parks have left?  <math>242 - 178 = ?</math> |
| Sam had 324 markers and 178 colored pencils. How many more markers does Sam have than colored pencils?  <math>324 + 178 = ?</math>                                                             | Lori had some crayons. Paula had 209 crayons. When the girls combined their crayons, they had 492. How many crayons did Lori have?  <math>? + 209 = 492</math>           |
| Mario had 417 baseball cards. He gave some to Franco. Now he has 279. How many baseball cards did Mario give Franco?  <math>417 - ? = 279</math>                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |