Today was Ozobot's birthday and it woke up as happy as a clown. It moved as fast as lightning into the kitchen where a hot plate of pancakes and bacon was on the table. After breakfast, Ozobot was as busy as a bee getting ready for school.

Once at school, Ozobot's best friend Bit ran over with a smile as bright as the sun. "Happy Birthday, buddy!" Bit exclaimed. The good friends were like two peas in a pod. Soon it was time for the spelling test. Since Ozobot had studied, it thought the test was as easy as pie. At recess, Ozobot got to play its favorite sport, soccer. Ozobot played goalie and was as solid as a rock. It didn't let any shots in.

Back at home, Ozobot was excited to celebrate with its family. The smell of pizza and the frosted chocolate cake made it feel as hungry as a bear. After dinner, Ozobot opened presents and played with the new toys. At bedtime, it moved as slow as a snail not ready for the day to end. Once in bed, Ozobot slept like a log.
