

What is the function of each of the following parts of speech:

Noun: A person, place or thing.

Adjective: A word that describes a noun (person, place or thing).

Preposition: A word that shows relationships, such as when, where, and how.

Place each word chosen by your Ozobot in the appropriate column.

Preposition	Noun	Adjective
behind	house	green
around	feet	tall
above	pencil	brave
on	museum
under beside
over
across
through

Write a sentence for each preposition you identified in the chart above.

1

Preposition

Sentence

behind

Supergirl flew behind the train.

behind

shows the relationship between Supergirl
and train.

2

around

We walked around the tree.

around

shows the relationship between we
and tree.

3

above

Airplanes flew above the clouds.

above

shows the relationship between airplanes and clouds.

Preposition

Sentence

4

on

The plate was on the table.

on

shows the relationship between _____ plate

and _____ table

5

under

Three cats were under the porch.

under

shows the relationship between _____ cats

and _____ porch .

6

beside

Dark chocolate syrup was beside the ice cream.

beside

shows the relationship between _____ syrup

and _____ ice cream .

Preposition

Sentence

7

over

I poured the dark chocolate syrup over the ice cream.

over

shows the relationship between _____ syrup
and _____ ice cream

8

across

She sat across from her best friend.

across

shows the relationship between _____ she
and _____ friend .

9

through

They crept through the dark tunnel toward the pinhole of light.

through

shows the relationship between _____ they
and _____ tunnel .